

NATURE PHOTOGRAPHY

I take a variety of different types of pictures. Despite nature's harshness and cruelty, there are many things in nature that are beautiful. These are assorted nature pictures I took that look good.

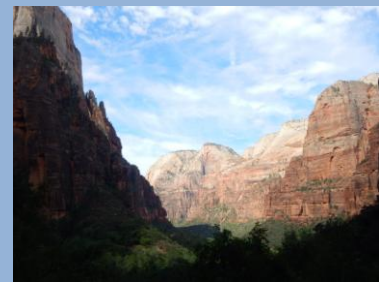

This is a picture of the Grand Canyon I took.

I took this one at Yosemite.

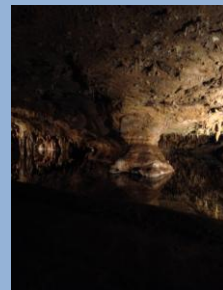

This is a picture from Keene pumpkin festival.

Zion National Park.

This is a flower I took a picture of in my front yard.

Luray Caverns.
